

St. James the Great Primary School & Nursery Wins Kent Design Award

March 2010

St. James the Great Primary School & Nursery has won a Kent Design Award in the category of 'Best Educational Project'.

The Kent Design Initiative aims to create a showcase of great buildings, memorable and attractive new places that reinforce Kent's distinctive character. The Kent Design Awards are a celebration of some of the fascinating and unique buildings across Kent which each in their own way exhibit design excellence and show how high quality design can transform people's experience of a building and leave them with a good impression.
